To Whom It May Concern:

This student is applying for a Residential Life position in Student Housing at Fresno State for the 2021-2022 academic year. Under the general supervision of a Resident Director, these student staff members are responsible for serving as an advisor and role model to students residing in the residential community. They are expected to play a proactive part in the development of each resident as well as developing the community as a whole.

The job responsibilities are demanding. They require dedication, energy, creativity, enthusiasm, reliability and lots of patience. The ability to be flexible and an exceptional team player are important. In addition, candidates need to be mature enough to confront their peers when policy violations are occurring.

By virtue of your experience with this candidate, please give us your opinion of this student's ability to perform these important responsibilities. Please be as candid as possible with your responses.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact me at 559.278.8134. Thank you for completing this recommendation form.

Recommendations may be returned one of the following ways:

- Mailed through standard mail or campus mail in a sealed envelope and signed over the flap by the person recommending.
- Dropped off at the Student Housing Front Desk in a sealed envelope and signed over the flap by the person recommending.
- Faxed to Student Housing at 559.278.5020
- Sent via email to micheledunlap@csufresno.edu

Please feel free to attach a separate sheet of paper if necessary. Failure to return the recommendation form by Friday, March 12, 2021 will render the application incomplete and could potentially disqualify the candidate.
